EXPLANATIONS

Filing of Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by the debtor(s) listed on the front side, and an order for relief has been entered. Chapter 13 allows an individual with regular income and debts below a specified amount to adjust debts pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the bankruptcy court. You may object to confirmation of the plan and appear at the confirmation hearing. A copy of the proposed plan has been or will be mailed to you by the debtor(s) or the attorney for the debtor(s). The date, time, and location of the confirmation hearing on the proposed plan is on the front of this notice. If this information changes, you will receive a separate notice of confirmation hearing or an order. The debtor(s) will remain in possession of the debtor's(s') property and may continue to operate the debtor's(s') business, if any, unless the court orders otherwise.
Creditors Generally May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions against the debtor(s) and certain codebtors are listed in §§ 362 and 1301 of the Bankruptcy Code. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor(s) by telephone, mail, or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor(s); repossessing the debtor's(s') property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures; and garnishing or deducting from the debtor's(s') wages. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor(s) can request the court to extend or impose a stay.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time, and location listed on the front side. The debtor(s) must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date specified in a notice filed with the court.
Claims	A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A Proof of Claim may be filed electronically through the Electronic Proof of Claim (ePOC) program included on the court's website at www.sdb.uscourts.gov . Alternatively, a Proof of Claim form may be obtained from the court's website under Local Rules and Forms – Official Forms – B 410 – Proof of Claim or by calling the bankruptcy clerk's office at (605) 357–2400 (Sioux Falls) or (605) 945–4460 (Pierre). You may look at the schedules that have been or will be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, it will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you file a Proof of Claim or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a Proof of Claim. If your claim is not listed at all or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, then you must file a Proof of Claim by the "Deadline to File a Proof of Claim" listed on the front side, or you might not be paid any money on your claim and may be unable to vote on a plan. The deadline to file a Proof of Claim is 90 days after the date first set for the meeting of creditors. A secured creditor retains rights in its collateral regardless of whether that creditor files a Proof of Claim. Filing a Proof of Claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences an attorney can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a Proof of Claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial. Do not include this notice with any filing you make with the court.
Discharge of Debts	The debtor(s) is (are) seeking a discharge of most debts, which may include your debt. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor(s). If you believe the debtor(s) is (are) not entitled to a discharge under Bankruptcy Code § 1328(f), you must file a motion objecting to discharge in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to Object to Discharge of Debtor(s) or to Challenge Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the front side. If you believe a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code § 523(a)(2) or (4), you must file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the same deadline. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the motion or the complaint and any required filing fee by that deadline.
Exempt Property	The debtor(s) is (are) permitted by law to keep certain property as exempt. Exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors, even if the debtor's(s') case is converted to chapter 7. The debtor(s) must file a list of all property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If you believe an exemption claimed by the debtor(s) is not authorized by law, you may file an objection to that exemption. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the "Deadline to Object to Exemptions" listed on the front side.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Any paper you file in this bankruptcy case should be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed on the front side. You may inspect all papers filed, including the lists of the debtor's(s') property and debts and the list of the property claimed as exempt, at the bankruptcy clerk's office. You may also review them online using PACER (contact the clerk's office for more information regarding PACER).
Creditor with a Foreign Address	If you are a creditor receiving a notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
Legal Advice	The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice. Consult an attorney to determine your rights in this case.
Debtor Identification	Important notice to individual debtors: All individual debtors must provide picture identification and proof of social security number to the trustee at the meeting of creditors. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of your case.
